

Please FCC, already folks are questioning the loosening of your regulations in regards to ownership. Then you are seen succumbing to pressure about the Super Bowl mishap. Who exactly do you represent? I thought the airwaves were for all.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

You must stop Sinclair from airing their propaganda, or at least force them to air something of equal import that honors Senator Kerry. Or, we could come up with a show that is dishonorable of President Bush. Either way, we need to adhere to equal time rules in some regard or just not allow them to air such trash.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Thank you.
